TERMS AND CONDITIONS

By use of the Jernigan Oil Co., Inc. (JOC) Fleet Fueling card, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

- The card may be used to purchase products at all Duck Thru Food Store locations.
- The customer and each guarantor unconditionally, jointly, and severally guarantee full and prompt payment of all sums which may, from time-to-time, be owing to JOC by the customer as a result of the agreement. Such sums may include but are not limited to the purchase of products through JOC facilities, and applicable interest, penalties, and service charges.
- Customer will receive at least one invoice per month (or more) depending on Customer's credit arrangements with JOC.
- Customer agrees to pay the full amount due according to the terms indicated on the JOC billing statement by delivery or mail to the address shown on the statement. If this amount is not received by JOC by the due date shown on the statement, customer and guarantors agree to pay interest on the past due balance at an annual rate of the greater of 18% or the maximum allowed by law, until the balance is paid in full. Any payments received will be applied first to outstanding finance charges, then to any past due balance, then to any new purchases.

- If JOC must use an attorney or collection agency to collect any overdue amount from customer and/or guarantors, customer and each guarantor agree to pay reasonable attorney fees and costs of collection incurred by JOC, plus court costs. In consideration of charges allowed and to be allowed to the customer, the guarantor hereby personally guarantees payments of all amounts due JOC.
- Customer must notify JOC of any disputed charge(s) within 60 days after the date of the statement on which such charge(s) appeared. After 60 days, all charges are considered valid and no adjustments will be made. Notice to JOC of a disputed charge shall be given by customer in writing and shall include the following information: Customer's name and account number; the dollar amount of the disputed charge; the reason customer is disputing the charge; and a copy of the statements on which the disputed charge appears. Notice shall be mailed to the JOC main office.
- Customers and guarantors shall be responsible for any unauthorized use of a lost or stolen card which occurs prior to customer's notification to JOC of such loss or theft. Customer and guarantors each agree that they shall notify JOC no later than the earlier of (i) forty-eight (48) hours following receipt or a JOC invoice which includes unauthorized charges or (ii) upon learning of unauthorized use of cards. Such notice must include the card number of each lost or stolen card as well as the identification of the person responsible for the loss.

- If cards are to be used for the conduct of customer's business by the employees of customer, it shall be customer's responsibility to ensure that its employees use the card in compliance with the customer's business policies. Any dispute in the regard shall be resolved between customer and its employees. Customer shall be responsible to JOC for payment of all such charges.
- JOC maintains the absolute right, exercisable in its sole discretion, to interrupt or terminate use of any and all cards issued to customer. In addition, the amount of credit we extend to a customer is subject to change or be limited at any time.
- If any portion of this agreement is subsequently held to be valid, such determination shall not affect the other provision of these terms and conditions, which shall remain in full force and effect.
